

WCNHCP February 2016 Newsletter

2016 Nursing Education Summit

Winds of Change: Empowering Nursing Education through Leadership and Diversity

February 2016

Monday May 16th and Tuesday May 17th

Casper College

The 2016 Nursing Education Summit is focusing on nursing leadership and increasing the diversity in nursing. Breakout sessions will be held on Monday by a variety of vendors. The sessions will show how their products can enhance current nursing education. On Tuesday Dr. Deborah Trautman, PhD, RN, FAAN, and President and CEO of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing, will be providing the keynote speech. Other presentations will be held on the status of diversity in Wyoming nursing. Participants will be in interactive sessions exploring how specific concepts, eg leadership, are taught in nursing courses and threaded throughout the ReNEW curriculum.

The 2016 Nursing Education Summit is provided free of charge. The summit is funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. CEUs will be provided for Tuesday's presentations. Lunch will be provided on Tuesday.

To register email Matt Sholty at msholty@uwyo.edu or call at 307-766-6715. Please provide your name, employer, email and phone number to contact in case of an emergency. Please provide any special accommodations needed for the Summit or dietary needs. If you have any questions please let Matt know at any time. A block of rooms has been set aside for the Nursing Education Summit at the Hilton Garden Inn in Casper (307-266-1300) $119.00/ night. Reservations before April 24th to secure the rate!

The WCNHCP is the nursing workforce center and the Action Coalition for the State of Wyoming. The mission of the center is to strengthen the nursing workforce through on-going collaboration, communication, and consensus building to meet the health needs of the people of Wyoming.

Preceptor Orientation

Preceptor orientation modules are available on the WCNHCP website: wynursing.org. The modules can be viewed together or individually. Moreover, you can return to the modules whenever you'd like when you need more information or need a little assistance.

Click here for Preceptor Orientation modules.

To get a preview of Dr. Deborah Tautman, PhD, RN, FAAN, President and CEO of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing, to see her present click here.

To read Dr Trautman's full bio click here

A dynamic profession needs confident leaders at all levels

As nursing gains increasing influence in all aspects of healthcare provision, it is vital that practitioners develop leadership skills at an early stage in their careers

Leadership is a key skill for nurses at all levels. While this may be stating the obvious for those whose position gives them direct managerial responsibility, even the most recently qualified practitioners need the confidence and skills to be able to offer leadership to students and other colleagues such as healthcare assistants.

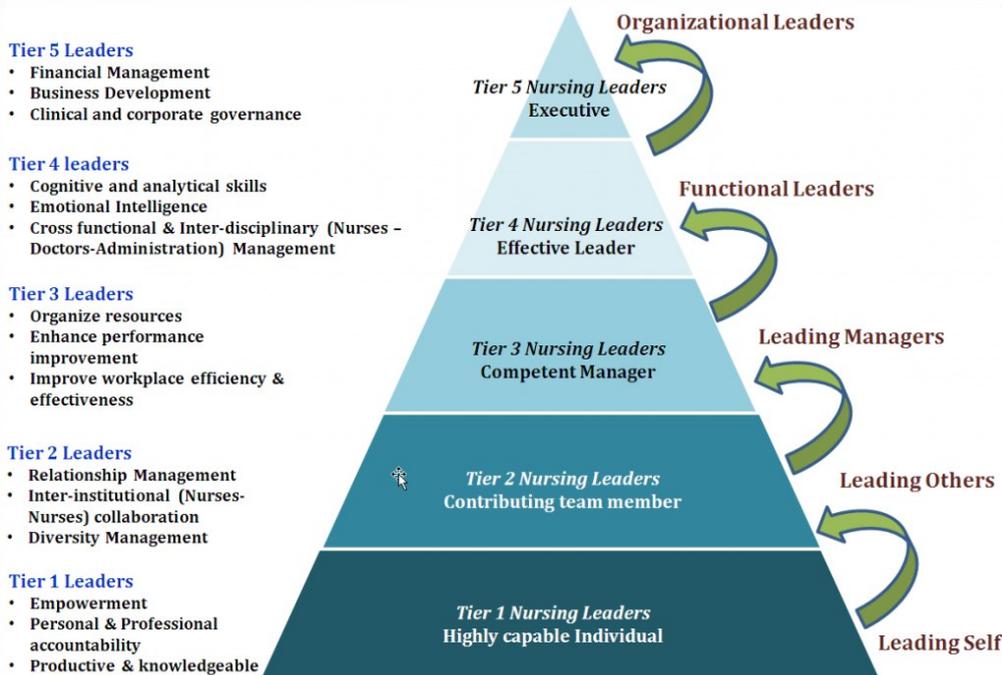

To read the entire Nursing Times special supplement on Leadership Skills for Nurses click here.

How to Become a Nurse Leader

Leadership is challenging and being a nurse leader is no exception, especially when considering the situations and issues unique to the healthcare profession. The nurse leader is not only responsible for matters specific to their own department or staff, but are also responsible for coordinating interactions with other departments within the organization (both professional and non-professional), and for both direct and indirect patient care. A nurse leader sets an example for the staff and cannot be fearful of failure, confrontation, or change. If failure is imminent, adjustments should be made, while moving forward and making progress.

To view the whole article click here.

To contact the WCNHCP call 307-766-6715 or email msholty@uwyo.edu.

WCNHCP February 2016 Newsletter

2016 Nursing Education Summit

Winds of Change: Empowering Nursing Education through Leadership and Diversity

February 2016

Monday May 16th and Tuesday May 17th

Casper College

The 2016 Nursing Education Summit is focusing on nursing leadership and increasing the diversity in nursing. Breakout sessions will be held on Monday by a variety of vendors. The sessions will show how their products can enhance current nursing education. On Tuesday Dr. Deborah Trautman, PhD, RN, FAAN, and President and CEO of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing, will be providing the keynote speech. Other presentations will be held on the status of diversity in Wyoming nursing. Participants will be in interactive sessions exploring how specific concepts, eg leadership, are taught in nursing courses and threaded throughout the ReNEW curriculum.

The 2016 Nursing Education Summit is provided free of charge. The summit is funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. CEUs will be provided for Tuesday's presentations. Lunch will be provided on Tuesday.

To register email Matt Sholty at msholty@uwyo.edu or call at 307-766-6715. Please provide your name, employer, email and phone number to contact in case of an emergency. Please provide any special accommodations needed for the Summit or dietary needs. If you have any questions please let Matt know at any time. A block of rooms has been set aside for the Nursing Education Summit at the Hilton Garden Inn in Casper (307-266-1300) $119.00/ night. Reservations before April 24th to secure the rate!

The WCNHCP is the nursing workforce center and the Action Coalition for the State of Wyoming. The mission of the center is to strengthen the nursing workforce through on-going collaboration, communication, and consensus building to meet the health needs of the people of Wyoming.

Preceptor Orientation

Preceptor orientation modules are available on the WCNHCP website: wynursing.org. The modules can be viewed together or individually. Moreover, you can return to the modules whenever you'd like when you need more information or need a little assistance.

Click here for Preceptor Orientation modules.

To get a preview of Dr. Deborah Tautman, PhD, RN, FAAN, President and CEO of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing, to see her present click here.

To read Dr Trautman's full bio click here

A dynamic profession needs confident leaders at all levels

As nursing gains increasing influence in all aspects of healthcare provision, it is vital that practitioners develop leadership skills at an early stage in their careers

Leadership is a key skill for nurses at all levels. While this may be stating the obvious for those whose position gives them direct managerial responsibility, even the most recently qualified practitioners need the confidence and skills to be able to offer leadership to students and other colleagues such as healthcare assistants.

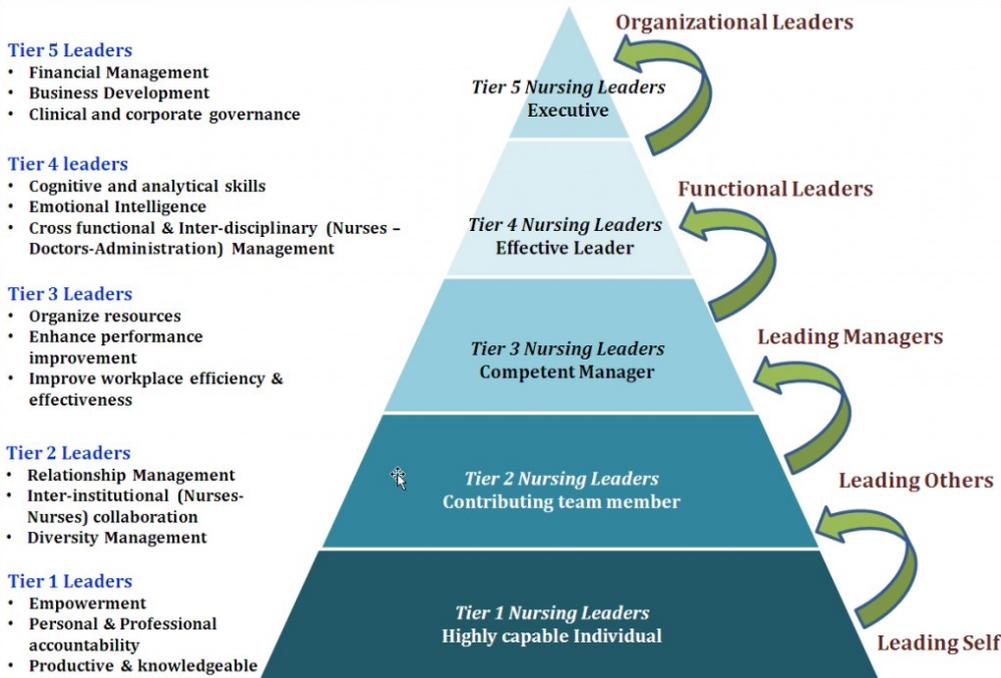

To read the entire Nursing Times special supplement on Leadership Skills for Nurses click here.

How to Become a Nurse Leader

Leadership is challenging and being a nurse leader is no exception, especially when considering the situations and issues unique to the healthcare profession. The nurse leader is not only responsible for matters specific to their own department or staff, but are also responsible for coordinating interactions with other departments within the organization (both professional and non-professional), and for both direct and indirect patient care. A nurse leader sets an example for the staff and cannot be fearful of failure, confrontation, or change. If failure is imminent, adjustments should be made, while moving forward and making progress.

To view the whole article click here.

To contact the WCNHCP call 307-766-6715 or email msholty@uwyo.edu.

WCNHCP February 2016 Newsletter

2016 Nursing Education Summit

Winds of Change: Empowering Nursing Education through Leadership and Diversity

February 2016

Monday May 16th and Tuesday May 17th

Casper College

The 2016 Nursing Education Summit is focusing on nursing leadership and increasing the diversity in nursing. Breakout sessions will be held on Monday by a variety of vendors. The sessions will show how their products can enhance current nursing education. On Tuesday Dr. Deborah Trautman, PhD, RN, FAAN, and President and CEO of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing, will be providing the keynote speech. Other presentations will be held on the status of diversity in Wyoming nursing. Participants will be in interactive sessions exploring how specific concepts, eg leadership, are taught in nursing courses and threaded throughout the ReNEW curriculum.

The 2016 Nursing Education Summit is provided free of charge. The summit is funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. CEUs will be provided for Tuesday's presentations. Lunch will be provided on Tuesday.

To register email Matt Sholty at msholty@uwyo.edu or call at 307-766-6715. Please provide your name, employer, email and phone number to contact in case of an emergency. Please provide any special accommodations needed for the Summit or dietary needs. If you have any questions please let Matt know at any time. A block of rooms has been set aside for the Nursing Education Summit at the Hilton Garden Inn in Casper (307-266-1300) $119.00/ night. Reservations before April 24th to secure the rate!

The WCNHCP is the nursing workforce center and the Action Coalition for the State of Wyoming. The mission of the center is to strengthen the nursing workforce through on-going collaboration, communication, and consensus building to meet the health needs of the people of Wyoming.

Preceptor Orientation

Preceptor orientation modules are available on the WCNHCP website: wynursing.org. The modules can be viewed together or individually. Moreover, you can return to the modules whenever you'd like when you need more information or need a little assistance.

Click here for Preceptor Orientation modules.

To get a preview of Dr. Deborah Tautman, PhD, RN, FAAN, President and CEO of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing, to see her present click here.

To read Dr Trautman's full bio click here

A dynamic profession needs confident leaders at all levels

As nursing gains increasing influence in all aspects of healthcare provision, it is vital that practitioners develop leadership skills at an early stage in their careers

Leadership is a key skill for nurses at all levels. While this may be stating the obvious for those whose position gives them direct managerial responsibility, even the most recently qualified practitioners need the confidence and skills to be able to offer leadership to students and other colleagues such as healthcare assistants.

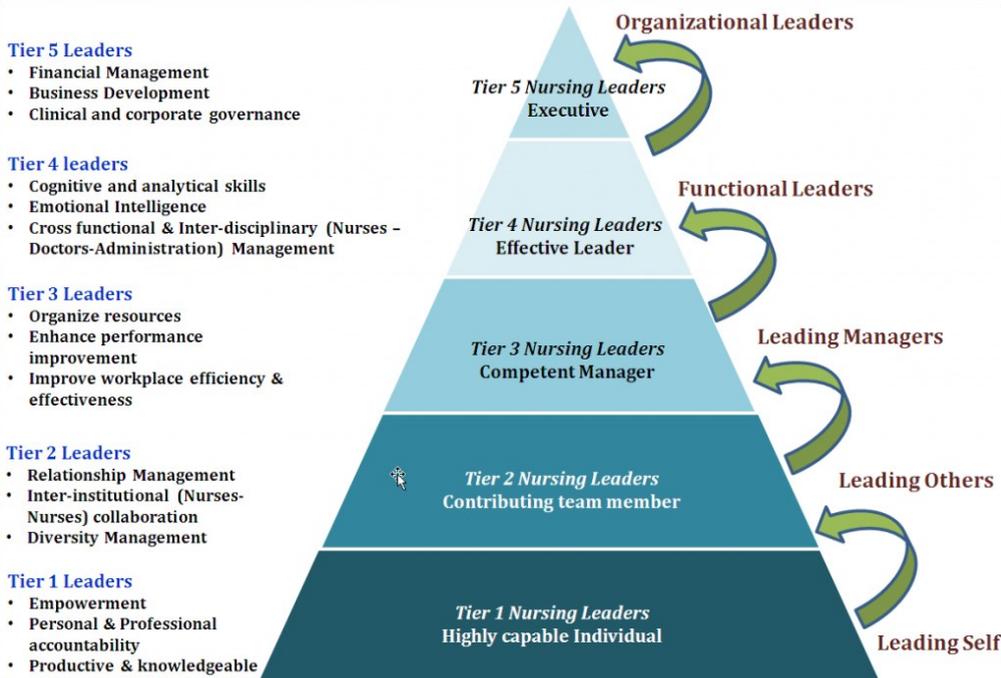

To read the entire Nursing Times special supplement on Leadership Skills for Nurses click here.

How to Become a Nurse Leader

Leadership is challenging and being a nurse leader is no exception, especially when considering the situations and issues unique to the healthcare profession. The nurse leader is not only responsible for matters specific to their own department or staff, but are also responsible for coordinating interactions with other departments within the organization (both professional and non-professional), and for both direct and indirect patient care. A nurse leader sets an example for the staff and cannot be fearful of failure, confrontation, or change. If failure is imminent, adjustments should be made, while moving forward and making progress.

To view the whole article click here.

To contact the WCNHCP call 307-766-6715 or email msholty@uwyo.edu.

WCNHCP February 2016 Newsletter

2016 Nursing Education Summit

Winds of Change: Empowering Nursing Education through Leadership and Diversity

February 2016

Monday May 16th and Tuesday May 17th

Casper College

The 2016 Nursing Education Summit is focusing on nursing leadership and increasing the diversity in nursing. Breakout sessions will be held on Monday by a variety of vendors. The sessions will show how their products can enhance current nursing education. On Tuesday Dr. Deborah Trautman, PhD, RN, FAAN, and President and CEO of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing, will be providing the keynote speech. Other presentations will be held on the status of diversity in Wyoming nursing. Participants will be in interactive sessions exploring how specific concepts, eg leadership, are taught in nursing courses and threaded throughout the ReNEW curriculum.

The 2016 Nursing Education Summit is provided free of charge. The summit is funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. CEUs will be provided for Tuesday's presentations. Lunch will be provided on Tuesday.

To register email Matt Sholty at msholty@uwyo.edu or call at 307-766-6715. Please provide your name, employer, email and phone number to contact in case of an emergency. Please provide any special accommodations needed for the Summit or dietary needs. If you have any questions please let Matt know at any time. A block of rooms has been set aside for the Nursing Education Summit at the Hilton Garden Inn in Casper (307-266-1300) $119.00/ night. Reservations before April 24th to secure the rate!

The WCNHCP is the nursing workforce center and the Action Coalition for the State of Wyoming. The mission of the center is to strengthen the nursing workforce through on-going collaboration, communication, and consensus building to meet the health needs of the people of Wyoming.

Preceptor Orientation

Preceptor orientation modules are available on the WCNHCP website: wynursing.org. The modules can be viewed together or individually. Moreover, you can return to the modules whenever you'd like when you need more information or need a little assistance.

Click here for Preceptor Orientation modules.

To get a preview of Dr. Deborah Tautman, PhD, RN, FAAN, President and CEO of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing, to see her present click here.

To read Dr Trautman's full bio click here

A dynamic profession needs confident leaders at all levels

As nursing gains increasing influence in all aspects of healthcare provision, it is vital that practitioners develop leadership skills at an early stage in their careers

Leadership is a key skill for nurses at all levels. While this may be stating the obvious for those whose position gives them direct managerial responsibility, even the most recently qualified practitioners need the confidence and skills to be able to offer leadership to students and other colleagues such as healthcare assistants.

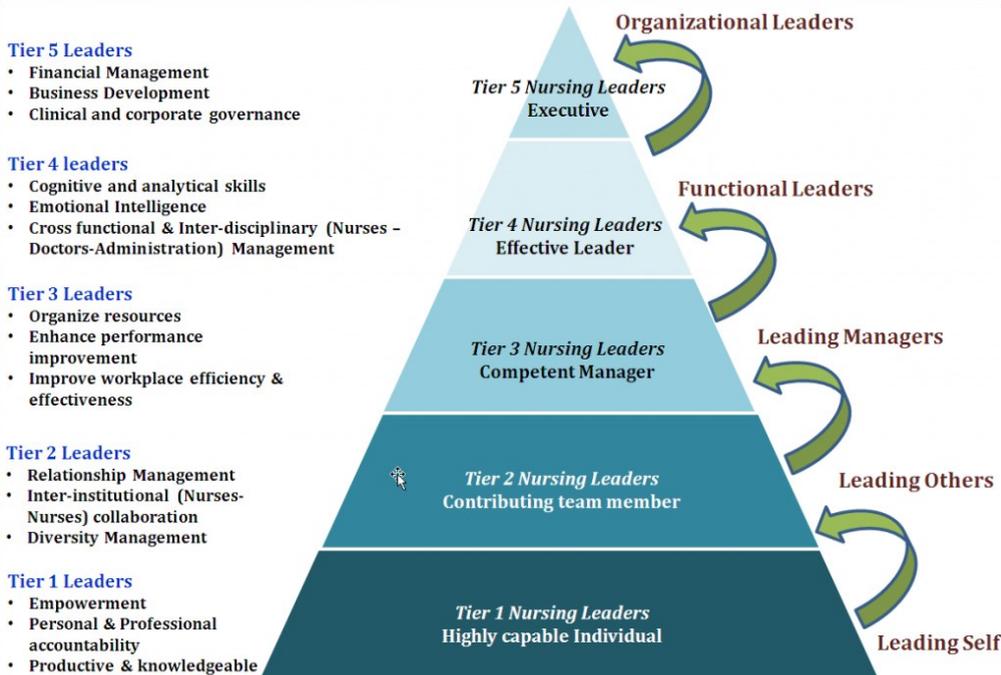

To read the entire Nursing Times special supplement on Leadership Skills for Nurses click here.

How to Become a Nurse Leader

Leadership is challenging and being a nurse leader is no exception, especially when considering the situations and issues unique to the healthcare profession. The nurse leader is not only responsible for matters specific to their own department or staff, but are also responsible for coordinating interactions with other departments within the organization (both professional and non-professional), and for both direct and indirect patient care. A nurse leader sets an example for the staff and cannot be fearful of failure, confrontation, or change. If failure is imminent, adjustments should be made, while moving forward and making progress.

To view the whole article click here.

To contact the WCNHCP call 307-766-6715 or email msholty@uwyo.edu.

WCNHCP February 2016 Newsletter

2016 Nursing Education Summit

Winds of Change: Empowering Nursing Education through Leadership and Diversity

February 2016

Monday May 16th and Tuesday May 17th

Casper College

The 2016 Nursing Education Summit is focusing on nursing leadership and increasing the diversity in nursing. Breakout sessions will be held on Monday by a variety of vendors. The sessions will show how their products can enhance current nursing education. On Tuesday Dr. Deborah Trautman, PhD, RN, FAAN, and President and CEO of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing, will be providing the keynote speech. Other presentations will be held on the status of diversity in Wyoming nursing. Participants will be in interactive sessions exploring how specific concepts, eg leadership, are taught in nursing courses and threaded throughout the ReNEW curriculum.

The 2016 Nursing Education Summit is provided free of charge. The summit is funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. CEUs will be provided for Tuesday's presentations. Lunch will be provided on Tuesday.

To register email Matt Sholty at msholty@uwyo.edu or call at 307-766-6715. Please provide your name, employer, email and phone number to contact in case of an emergency. Please provide any special accommodations needed for the Summit or dietary needs. If you have any questions please let Matt know at any time. A block of rooms has been set aside for the Nursing Education Summit at the Hilton Garden Inn in Casper (307-266-1300) $119.00/ night. Reservations before April 24th to secure the rate!

The WCNHCP is the nursing workforce center and the Action Coalition for the State of Wyoming. The mission of the center is to strengthen the nursing workforce through on-going collaboration, communication, and consensus building to meet the health needs of the people of Wyoming.

Preceptor Orientation

Preceptor orientation modules are available on the WCNHCP website: wynursing.org. The modules can be viewed together or individually. Moreover, you can return to the modules whenever you'd like when you need more information or need a little assistance.

Click here for Preceptor Orientation modules.

To get a preview of Dr. Deborah Tautman, PhD, RN, FAAN, President and CEO of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing, to see her present click here.

To read Dr Trautman's full bio click here

A dynamic profession needs confident leaders at all levels

As nursing gains increasing influence in all aspects of healthcare provision, it is vital that practitioners develop leadership skills at an early stage in their careers

Leadership is a key skill for nurses at all levels. While this may be stating the obvious for those whose position gives them direct managerial responsibility, even the most recently qualified practitioners need the confidence and skills to be able to offer leadership to students and other colleagues such as healthcare assistants.

To read the entire Nursing Times special supplement on Leadership Skills for Nurses click here.

How to Become a Nurse Leader

Leadership is challenging and being a nurse leader is no exception, especially when considering the situations and issues unique to the healthcare profession. The nurse leader is not only responsible for matters specific to their own department or staff, but are also responsible for coordinating interactions with other departments within the organization (both professional and non-professional), and for both direct and indirect patient care. A nurse leader sets an example for the staff and cannot be fearful of failure, confrontation, or change. If failure is imminent, adjustments should be made, while moving forward and making progress.

To view the whole article click here.

To contact the WCNHCP call 307-766-6715 or email msholty@uwyo.edu.

